COMPANY'S STATEMENT

The Company considers applicants for all positions without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, national origin, disability, marital status, sexual orientation or any other characteristic protected by applicable laws.

APPLICANT'S STATEMENT

I certify that all information I have provided in order to apply for and secure work with The Post-Standard is true, complete and correct. I understand that if I am extended an offer of employment I may be required to submit to a complete physical examination, including blood and/or urine tests and that my employment may be conditioned upon the results of the examination. I understand that the company has an obligation to provide the highest-quality service to its readers, subscribers and advertisers and that it must hire people qualified to meet that obligation. So the company has my permission to verify the information on this application. I authorize persons, schools and current or previous employers (if applicable) named in this application (and accompanying resume, if any) to provide The Post-Standard with any relevant information needed to arrive at an employment decision. I hereby waive any and all rights and claims I may have against The Post-Standard and its agents, employees or representatives for seeking, gathering and using such information in the employment process, and against all persons, schools, and current or previous employers (if applicable) named in this application, or included on my resume, for furnishing such information about me.

I understand that my application can be rejected, or I can be fired, if any information I have given here is false or misleading. This application does not indicate that a job is available now, nor does it obligate The Post-Standard in any way.

I understand that no Post-Standard representative other than its publisher has authority to make any agreement that contradicts this statement. If I am hired I will abide by the company's rules.

This signature is my acknowledgement that I have read and understand this statement and its consequences.
