Baby's Front Page

The Post-Standard offers a unique way to preserve one of the most special moments of your life, the birth of your child. Our "Baby's Front Page" will not only highlight your child's birth, but will reflect the events of the day he or she was born, including a weather forecast and listing of famous people also born on that day. Baby's front page is printed on high-quality photographic paper suitable for framing.
